GROWERS

The winery is located on the family's 30-acre farm, La Tapada in Rubia de Valdeorras. Guitian wines are made exclusively with estate-grown fruit. Since the first bottling in 1992, Guitian's wines have been recognized worldwide as prime examples of premium quality Godello.

LAND

The La Tapade vineyard is 25 acres of shale and schist. The vineyard has Southern/Southeastern exposures and an elevation of 1,650 feet. The vineyard was planted in 1985. This region is green and cool.

FARMING

Double guyot vines are harvested in September, with a yield per acre of 3.2 tons.

WINE

100% Godello.
Fermented in stainless steel tanks with at least 1 month of bottle aging. Straw yellow with green reflections, it displays an intensely aromatic nose. On the palate, this wines has wonderful acidity, nice structure and elegance.
