Young Monica Medrano-Martin and Ruben Iglesias married and established a winery in 2002. Monica's family has been living in Quintanilla de Onesimo for generations and began planting vines over 50 years ago - Ruben a young agronomist and winemaker was her perfect suitor. They now have two young children Sara and Mario and 24 Hectares of vines in Ribera del Duero.

LAND & FARMING

Located on the "Golden Mile" in the town of Quintanilla de Onesimo near Bodegas Pingus and Arzuaga and only a few miles from famous Pesquera and Vega Sicilia. Vega de Yuso owns 24 hectares (60 acres) divided into 7 vineyards. All their vineyards are planted on steep hills above the valley floor, escaping the dangerous frost that force most wineries to harvest early. Tres Matas Vineyards are about 50 years old and farmed in bush vines. They were planted in chalk rich soil at an altitude of 2,800 feet. On average they yields 1.8 Tons/ acre = 88 cases
Total production is 3,200 6 packs

THE WINE

Tres Matas Crianza is 100% Tinta Fina and aged for 14 months in 50% French + 50% American Oak then a year in bottle. The style is elegant, deep and structured. Ruben says he wants to express fresh minerality of the chalky soil and deep red fruit of the old vines grown above the valley floor. It is their most awarded wine often winning top crianza in Envero the local wine competition.
